About Me

I am a creative front-end web developer with working experience in UI/UX design. From Dhaka, Bangladesh, currently working at OFA Support as a Front-End Engineer in Miyazaki, Japan. I graduated in Computer Science and Engineering.

I have over 3 years of experience as a developer, UI/UX designer and loved working with Laravel, React and other latest frameworks. I have extensive experience working on Wordpress as well.

I am looking for a job opportunity at a company that allows me to learn new technologies and applies them to improve the business.
